

PERSONAL.

E. R. Bayless left Monday for a trip to Arkansas.

Sheriff Cameron spent several days this week in Williams.

E. E. Ellinwood is in Los Angeles on legal business this week.

Rev. Father Dilley will hold services in the Catholic church at Williams tomorrow.

William Smoot, Sr., and William Smoot, Jr., were in the county seat Tuesday.

James Haley, who has been spending a month in Los Angeles, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. John Clark left Monday for San Francisco. She expects to be absent two months.

I. T. Hibbard, superintendent of the Santa Fe Pacific railroad, was in town on Wednesday.

William Ault, who is in charge of the pumping station at Bellemont, was in town Thursday.

Max Salzman, the merchant prince of Williams, was in town yesterday on a business mission.

Thomas Frye came in from Prescott Thursday. He was called here by the illness of his child.

E. S. Gosney left Tuesday for a ten days' visit with his family, who are stopping in Los Angeles.

D. M. Francis, county treasurer, is in the Salt River valley this week looking after his bands of sheep.

Mrs. Charles Allen, who has been visiting Mrs. W. H. Ashurst for the past two months, left Sunday for Needles.

T. A. Riordan and F. W. Sisson of the Arizona Lumber and Timber company are off on a business trip to southern California this week.

J. F. Pearce, a representative of the New York Mutual Life Insurance company, is here this week and will make this place his headquarters.

W. H. Beard of Globe spent several days here this week. He says the people of his section are rejoicing over the prospects of the speedy building of the railroad to that place.

J. C. Adams, the newly appointed postmaster at Phoenix, was a passenger on No. 1 Tuesday, bound for Phoenix. Mr. Adams expects to enter upon his new duties on March 1.

C. W. Davis, the agent of the Santa Fe Pacific railroad at this place, returned Monday from a sixty days' vacation in Chicago and vicinity. He will probably resume his duties here in a few days.

Frank Murphy, president of the S. F. & P. railroad, returned from a trip to Chicago and Washington Monday. Mr. Murphy says that the railroad from Prescott to Big Bug will be completed this year.

J. A. Vail and family returned on Wednesday from a two months' visit with relatives in Goshen, Ind. Mr. Vail is glad to get back to the 'land of sunshine. During his stay in Indiana the weather was cloudy and foggy.

J. R. Halsey and wife of Kingman spent several days here during the week. Mr. Halsey has leased the sampling works at Kingman to L. J. Lassell and with his wife will spend the rest of the year in Colorado, making Denver their principal stopping place.

C. C. Randolph, editor of the Phoenix Republican, was a homeward-bound passenger on No. 1 Monday. Mr. Randolph had been to Washington to attend the meeting of the Gridiron club, an organization of press reporters. He could not miss the meeting of the club, although he had to travel 3,000 miles to attend it.